

"HE'S TALKING ABOUT DADDY."

CHURCH HUMOR

"These are my demands..."

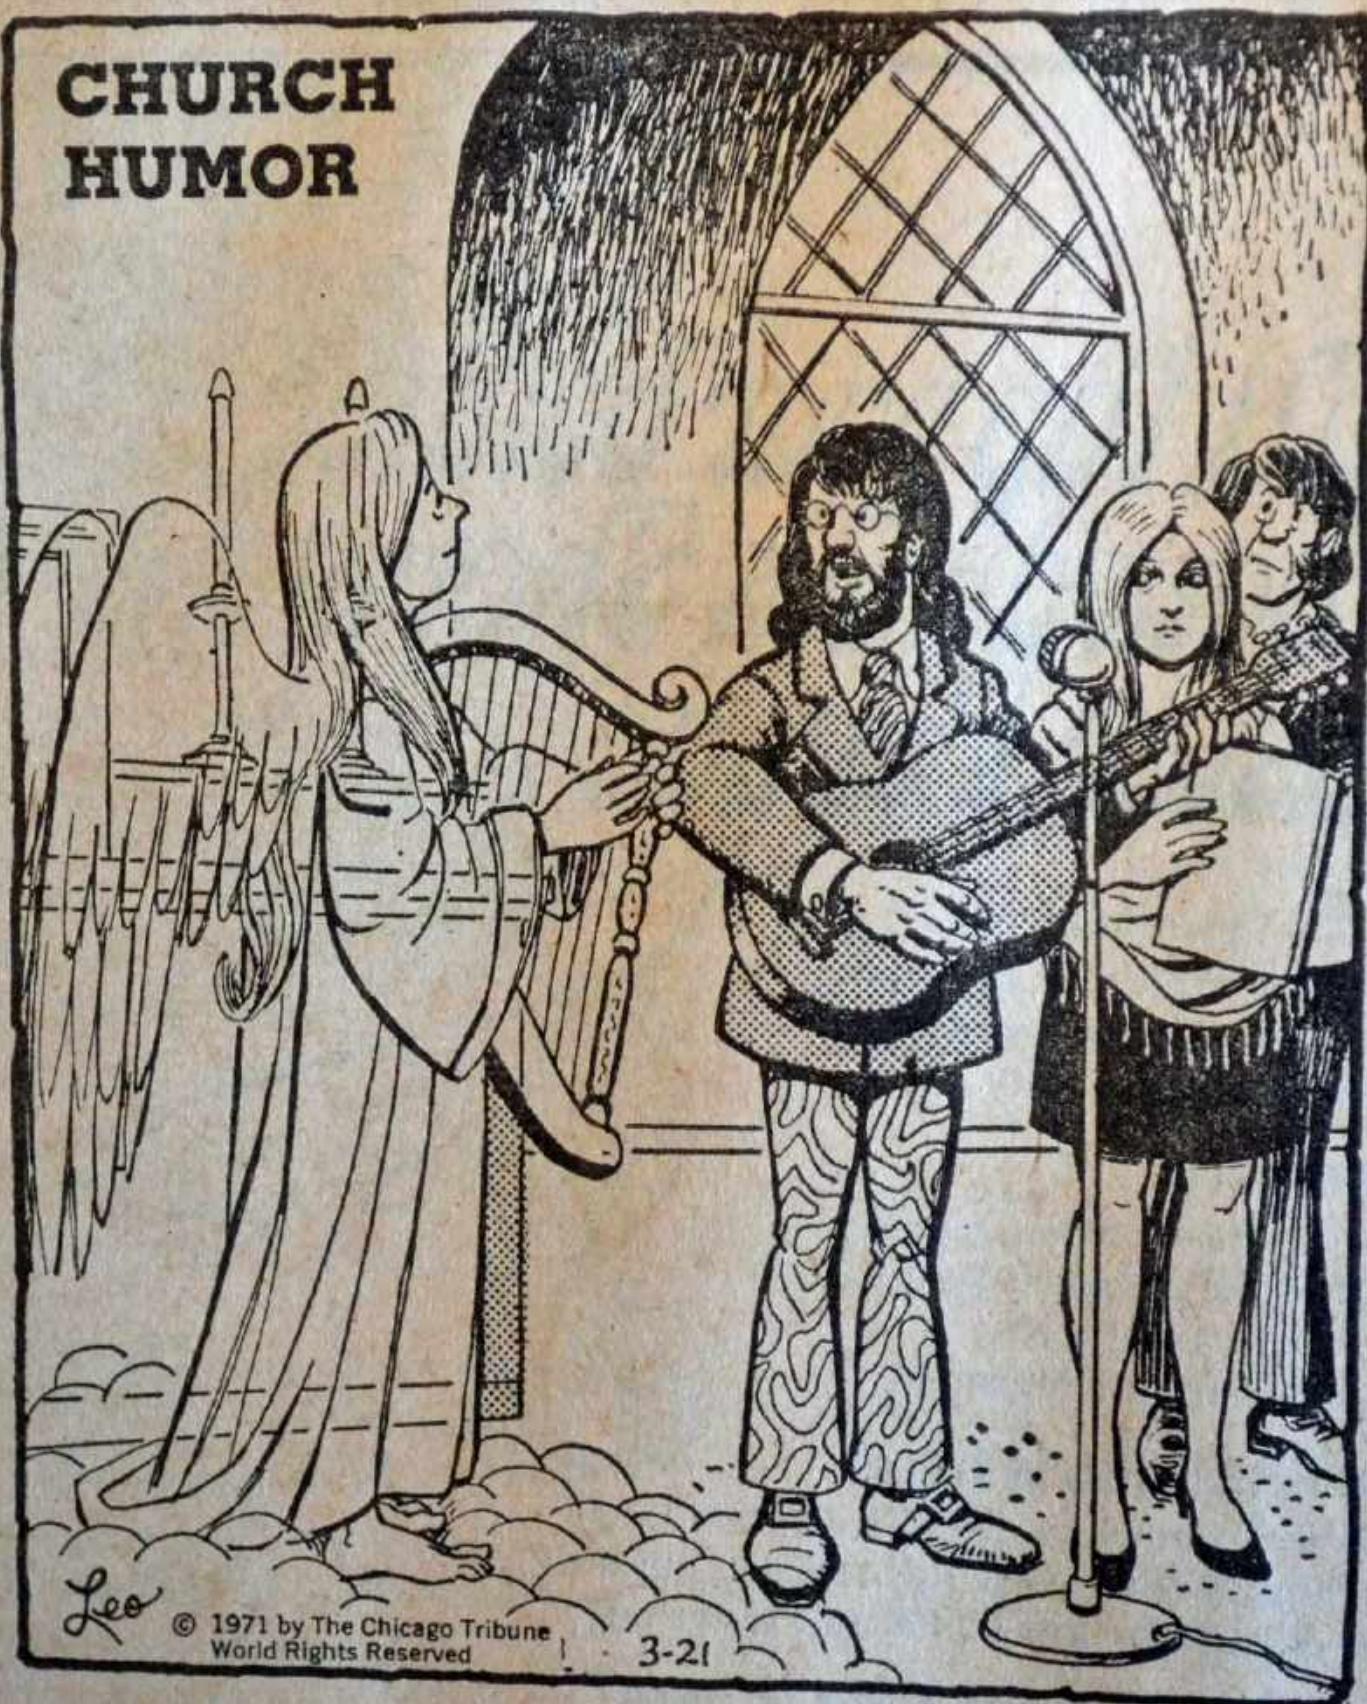

CHURCH HUMOR

© 1971 by The Chicago Tribune
World Rights Reserved

"I don't mind peaceful protest against church policies, but I deplore violence—like withholding financial support."

CHURCH HUMOR

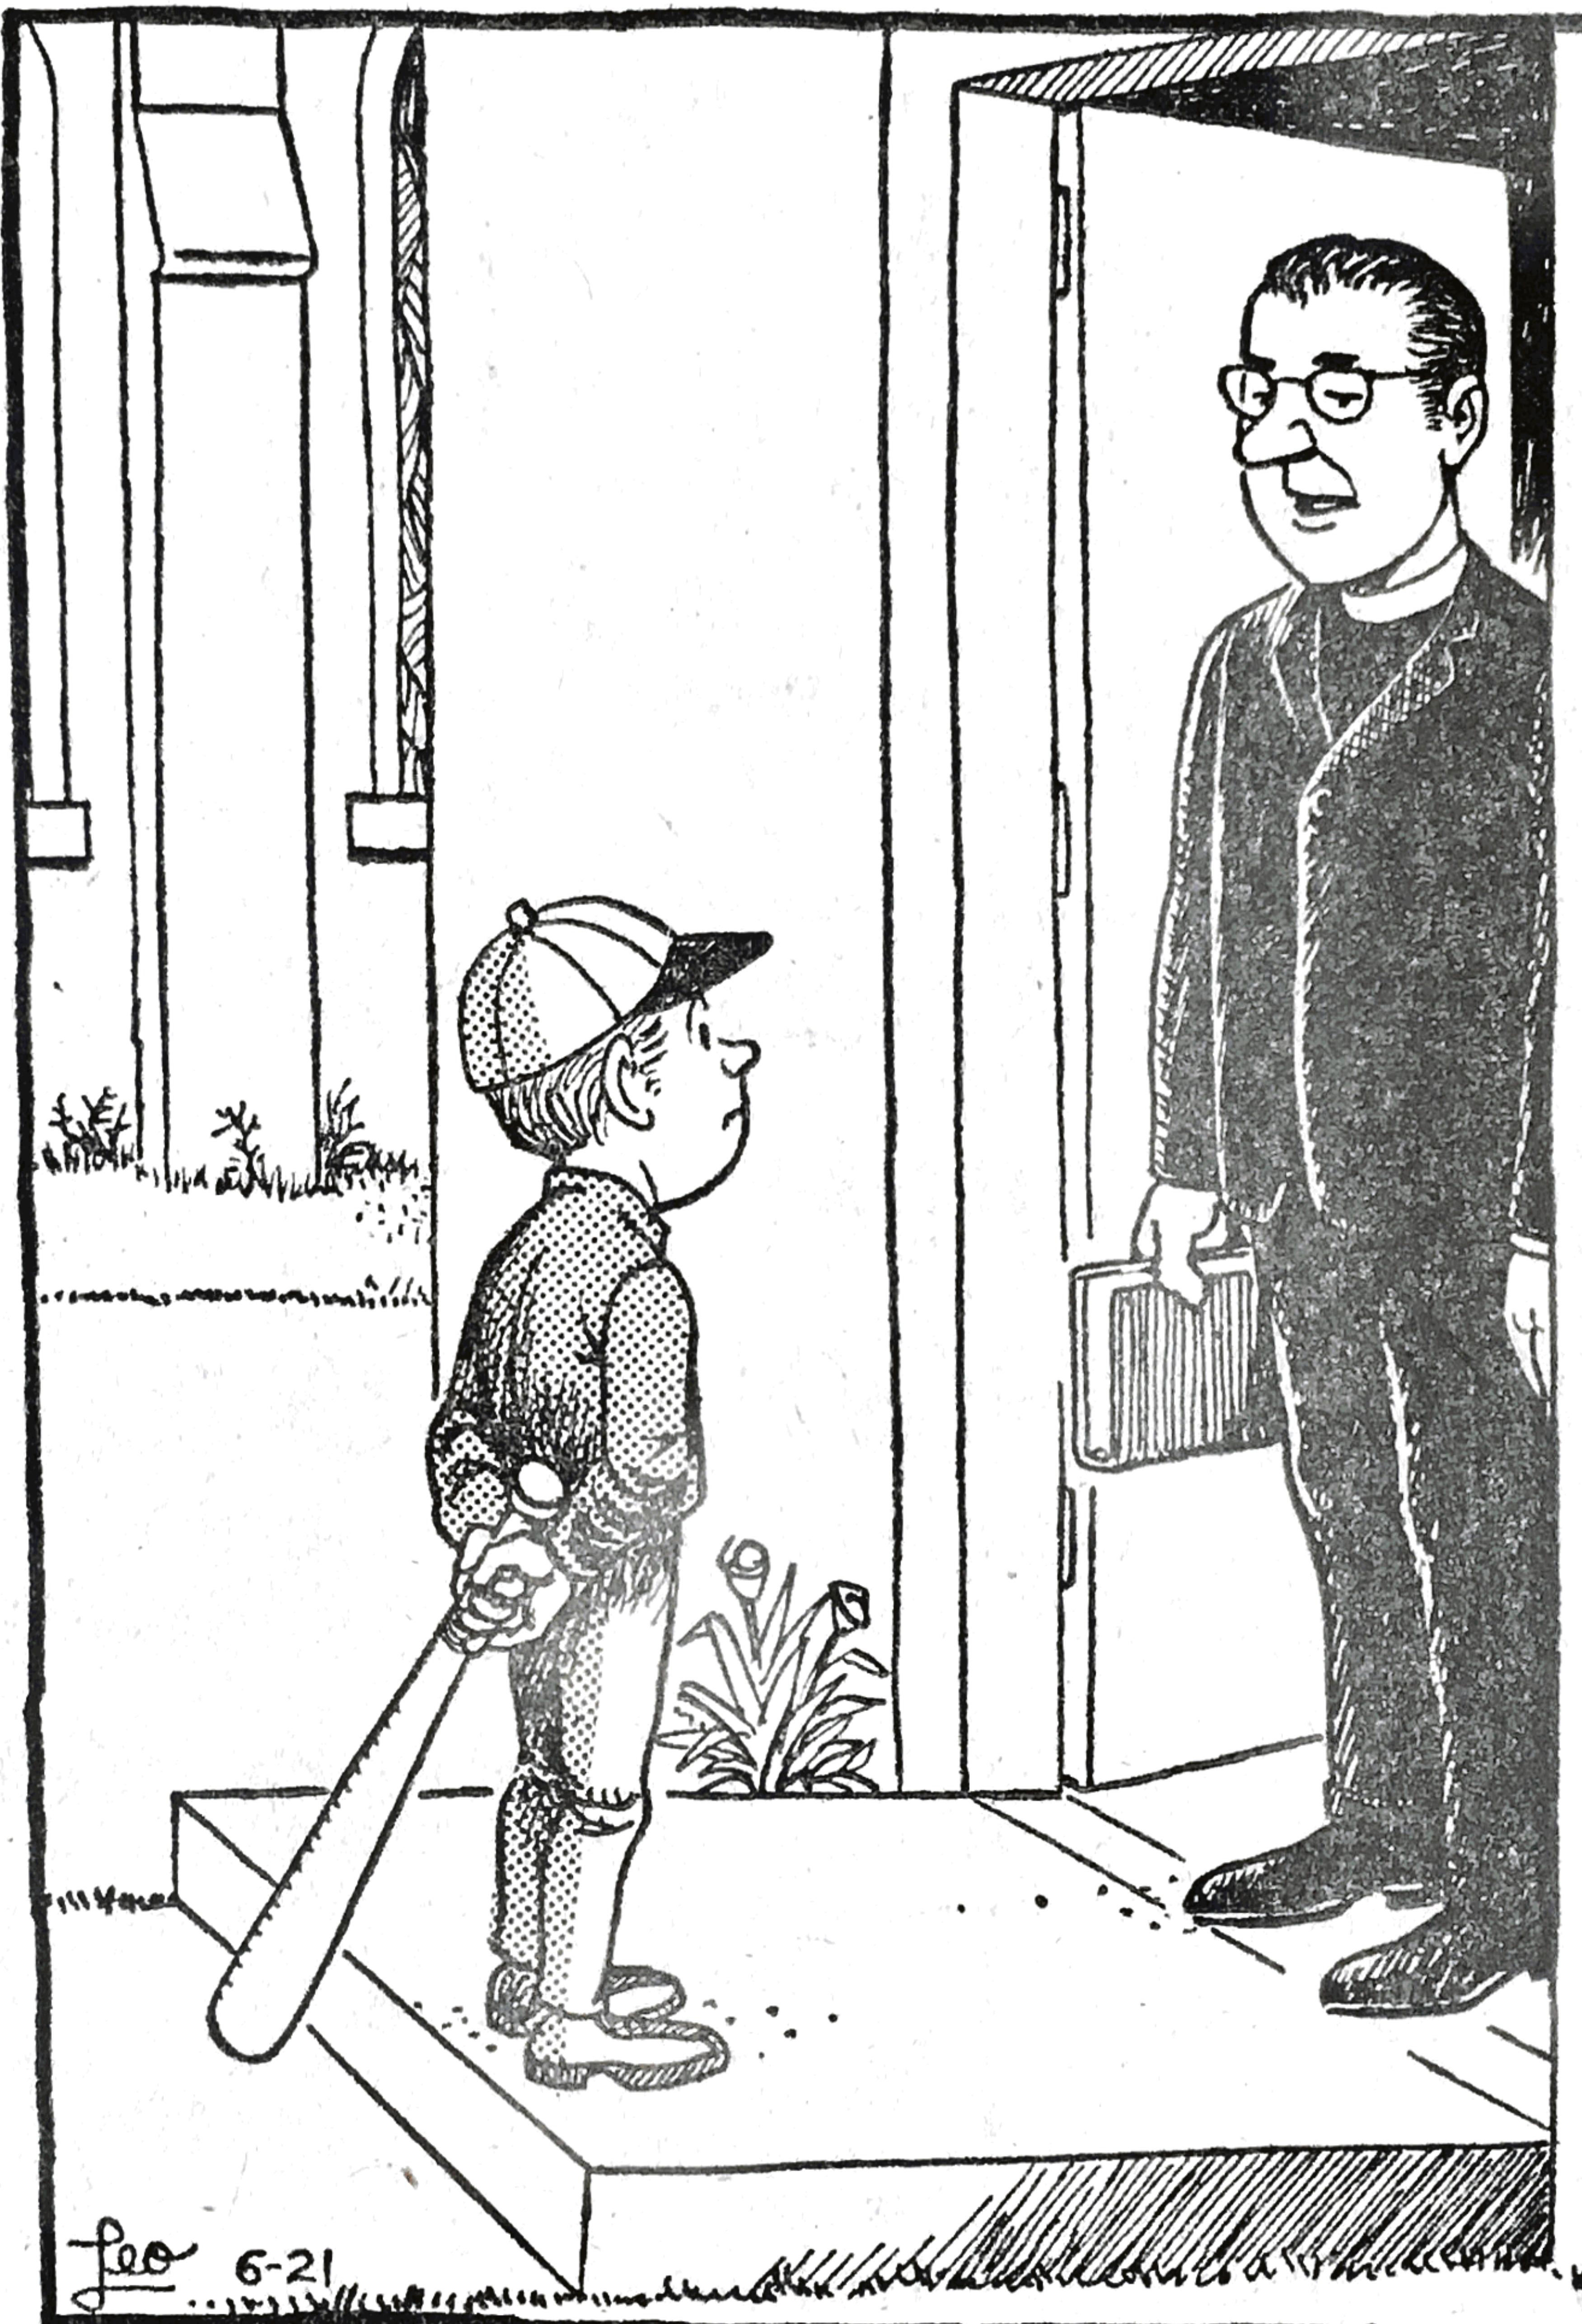

© 1971 by The Chicago Tribune
World Rights Reserved

3-21

"Get lost, fella—this is a guitar mass!"

CHURCH HUMOR

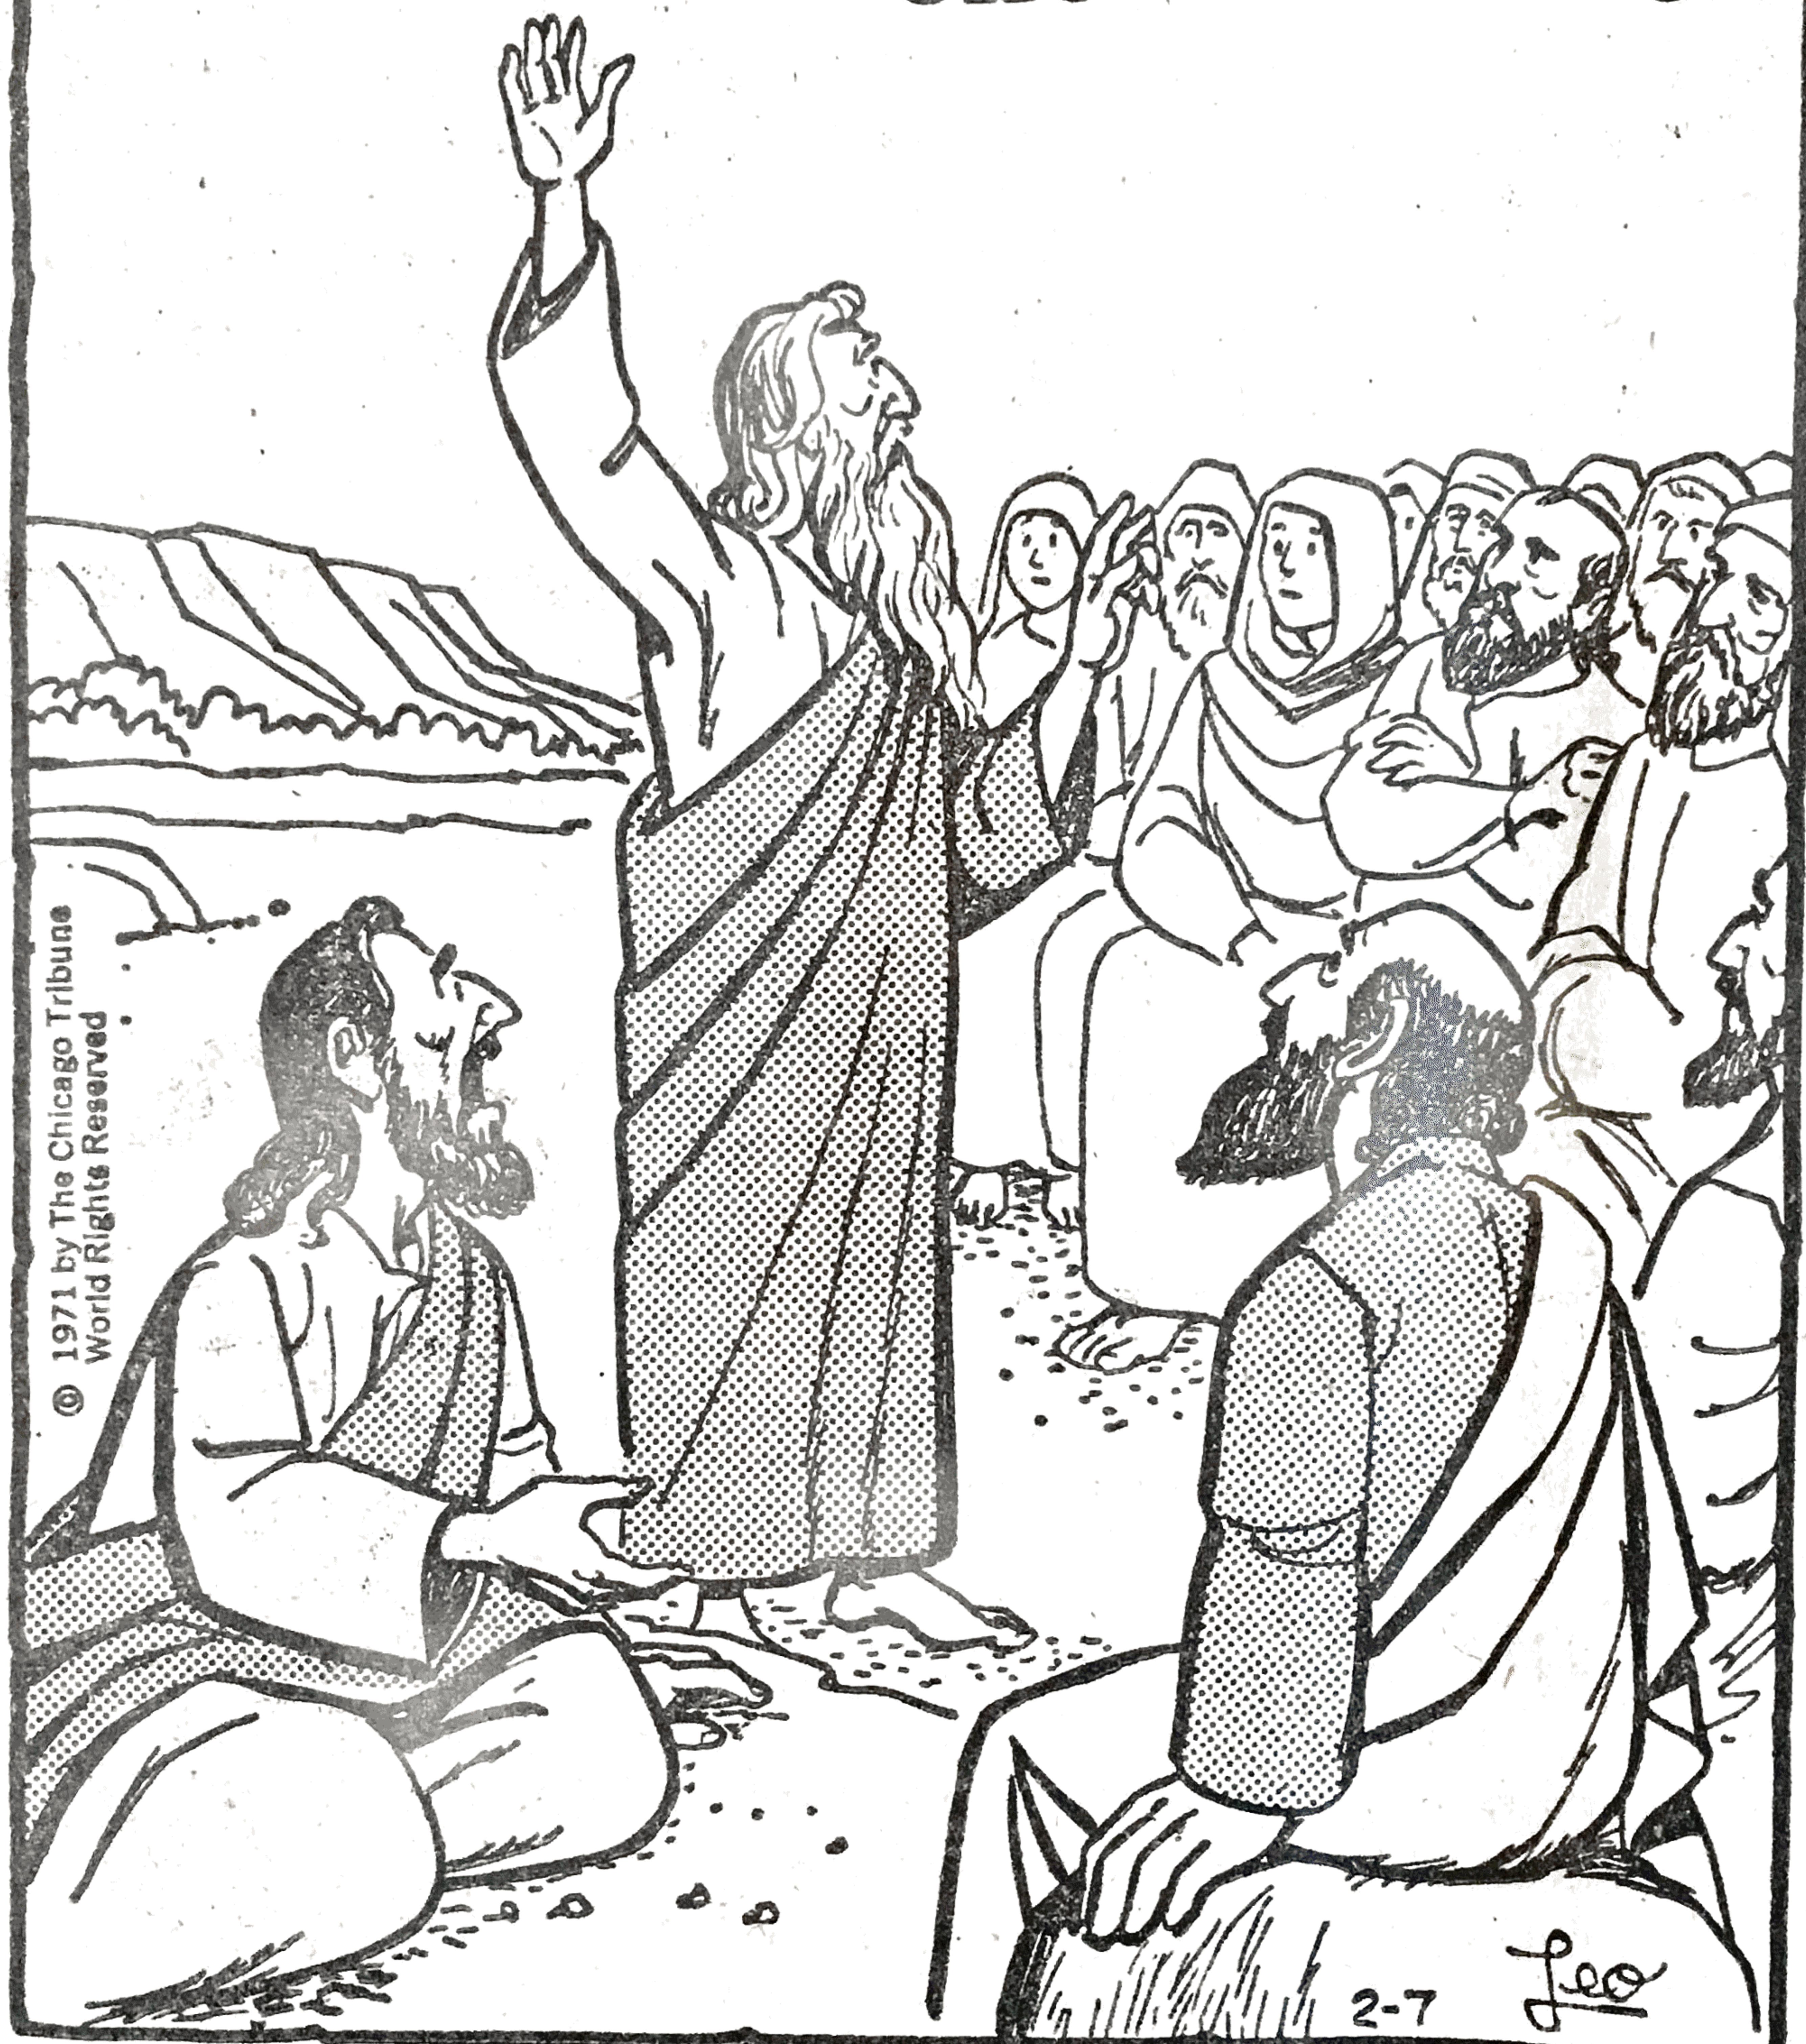

"The big stained glass window in the church?
Oh, about $12,000. Why do you ask?"

"She wanted a church wedding and he didn't."

CHURCH HUMOR

"Some prophet! He can tell you what's going to happen a thousand years from now, but he can't tell you what the weather will be tomorrow."

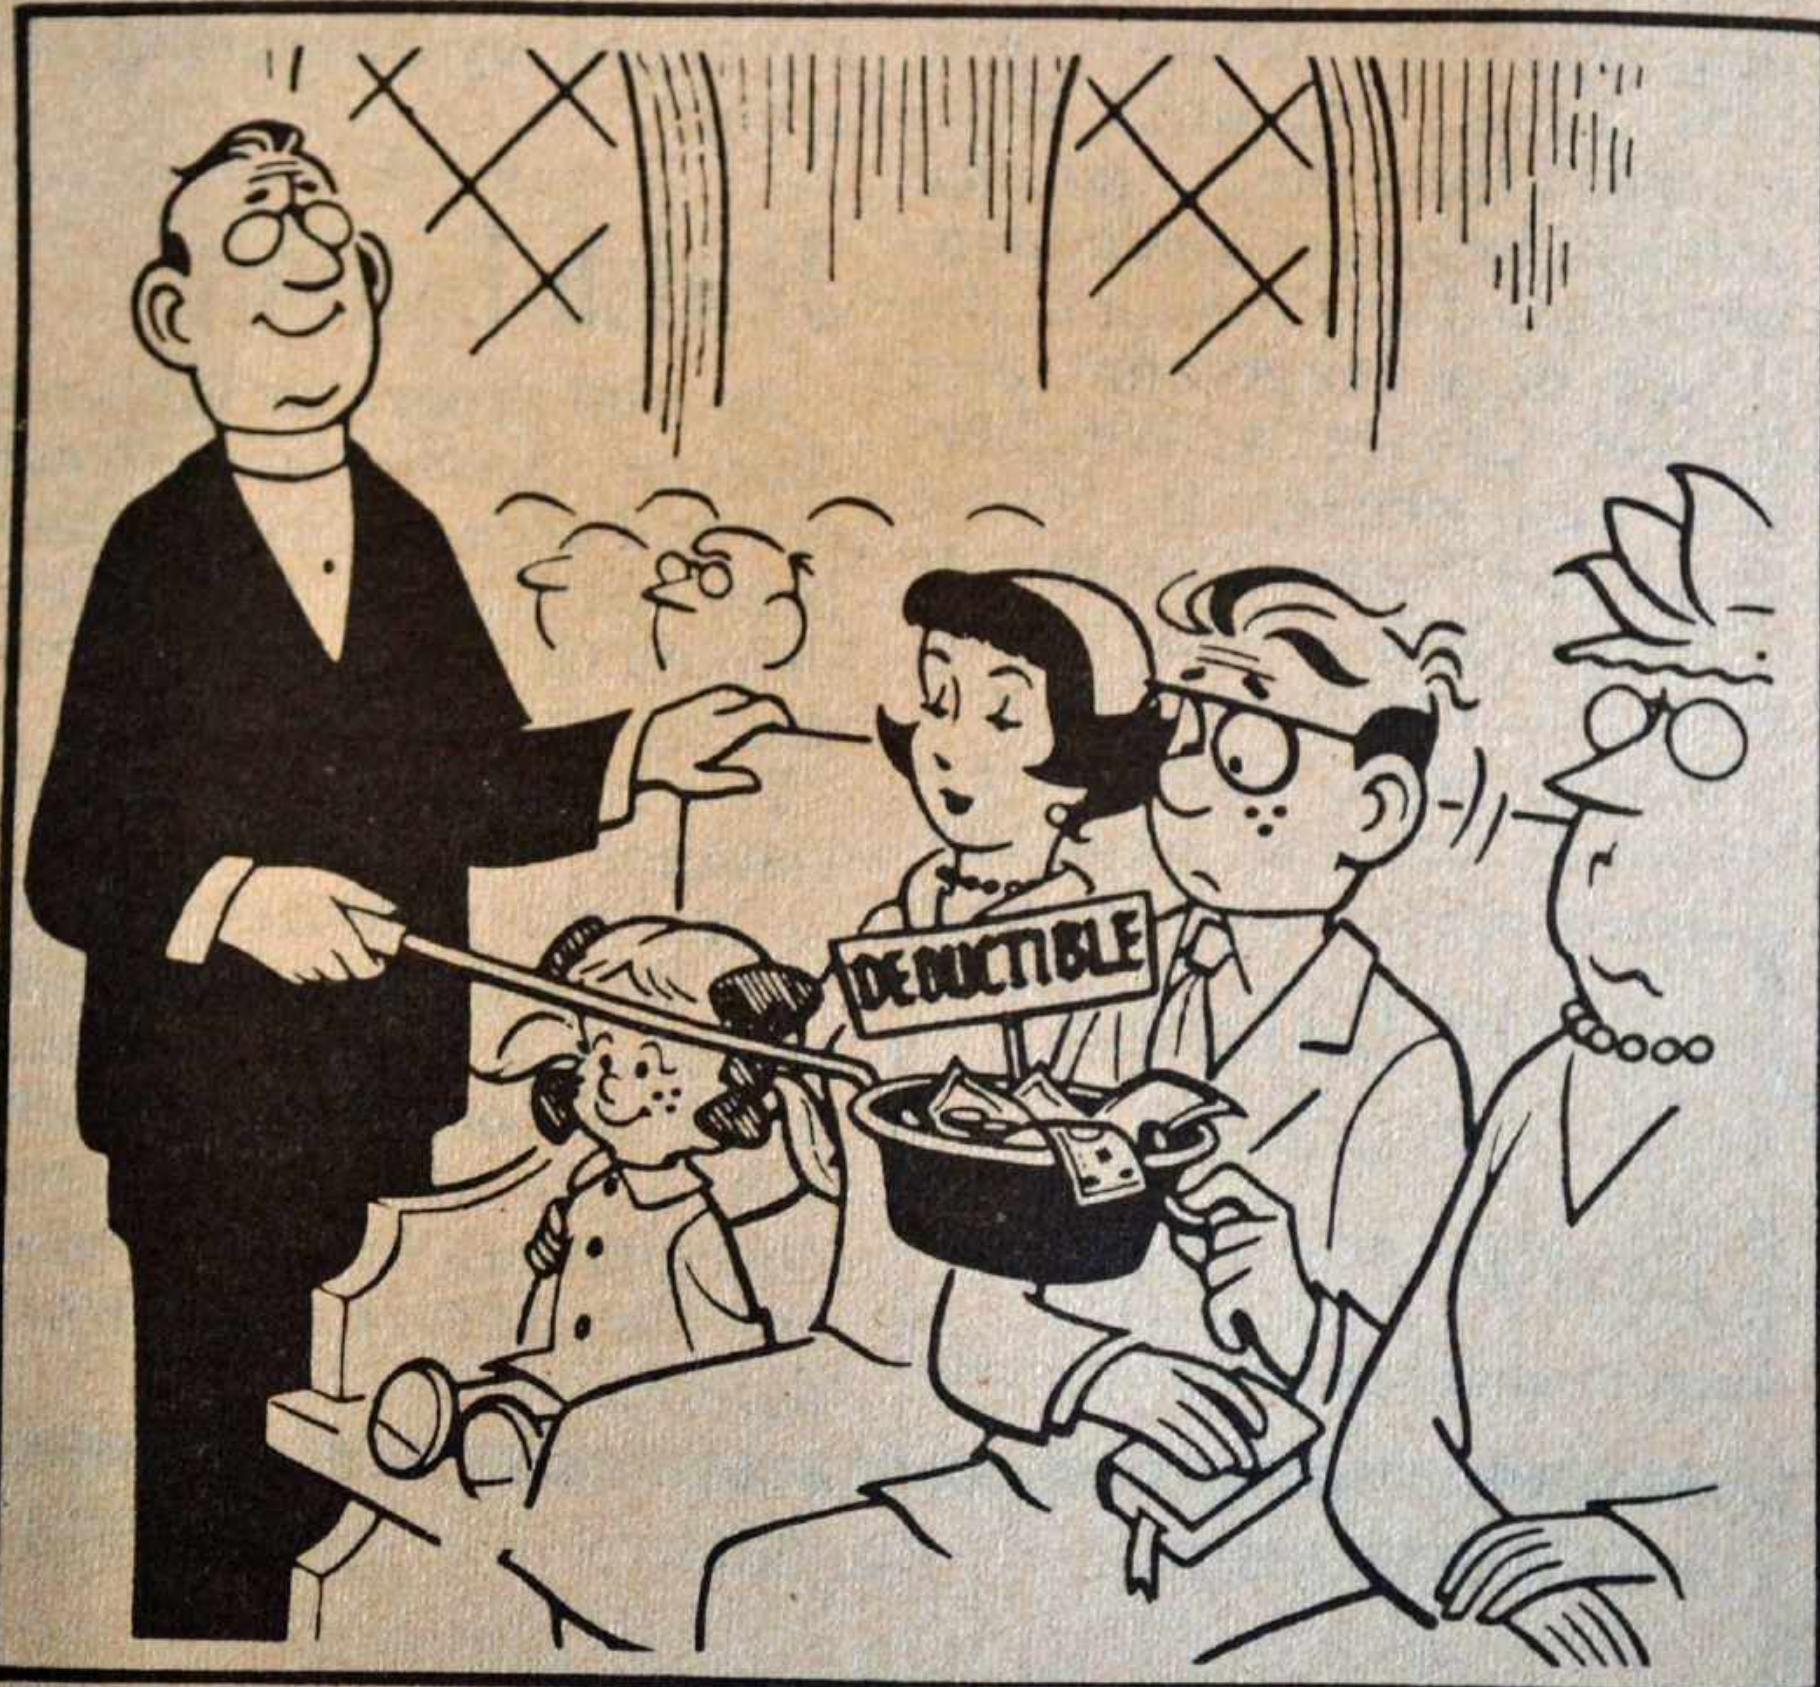

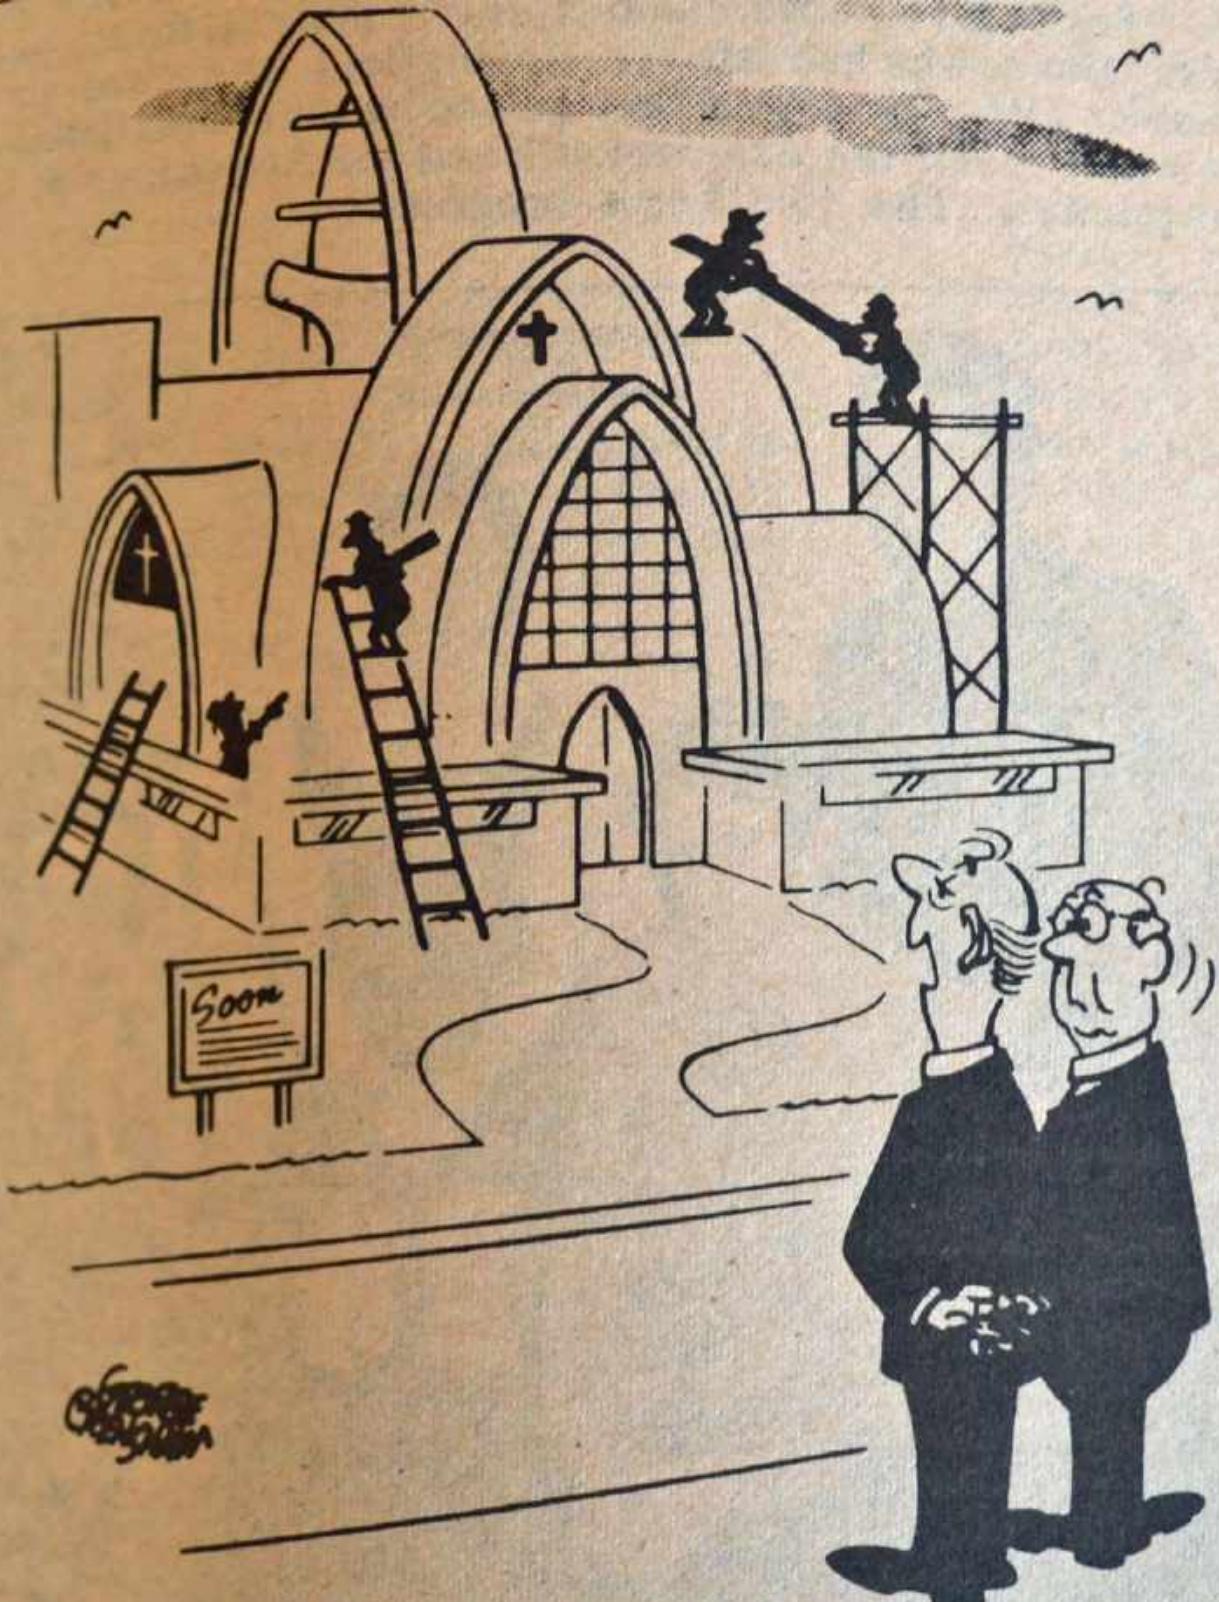

Nan

"HAVE YOU FINISHED TYPING MY SERMON?... MISS HIGGINS?...
MISS HIGGINS, WAKE UP!"

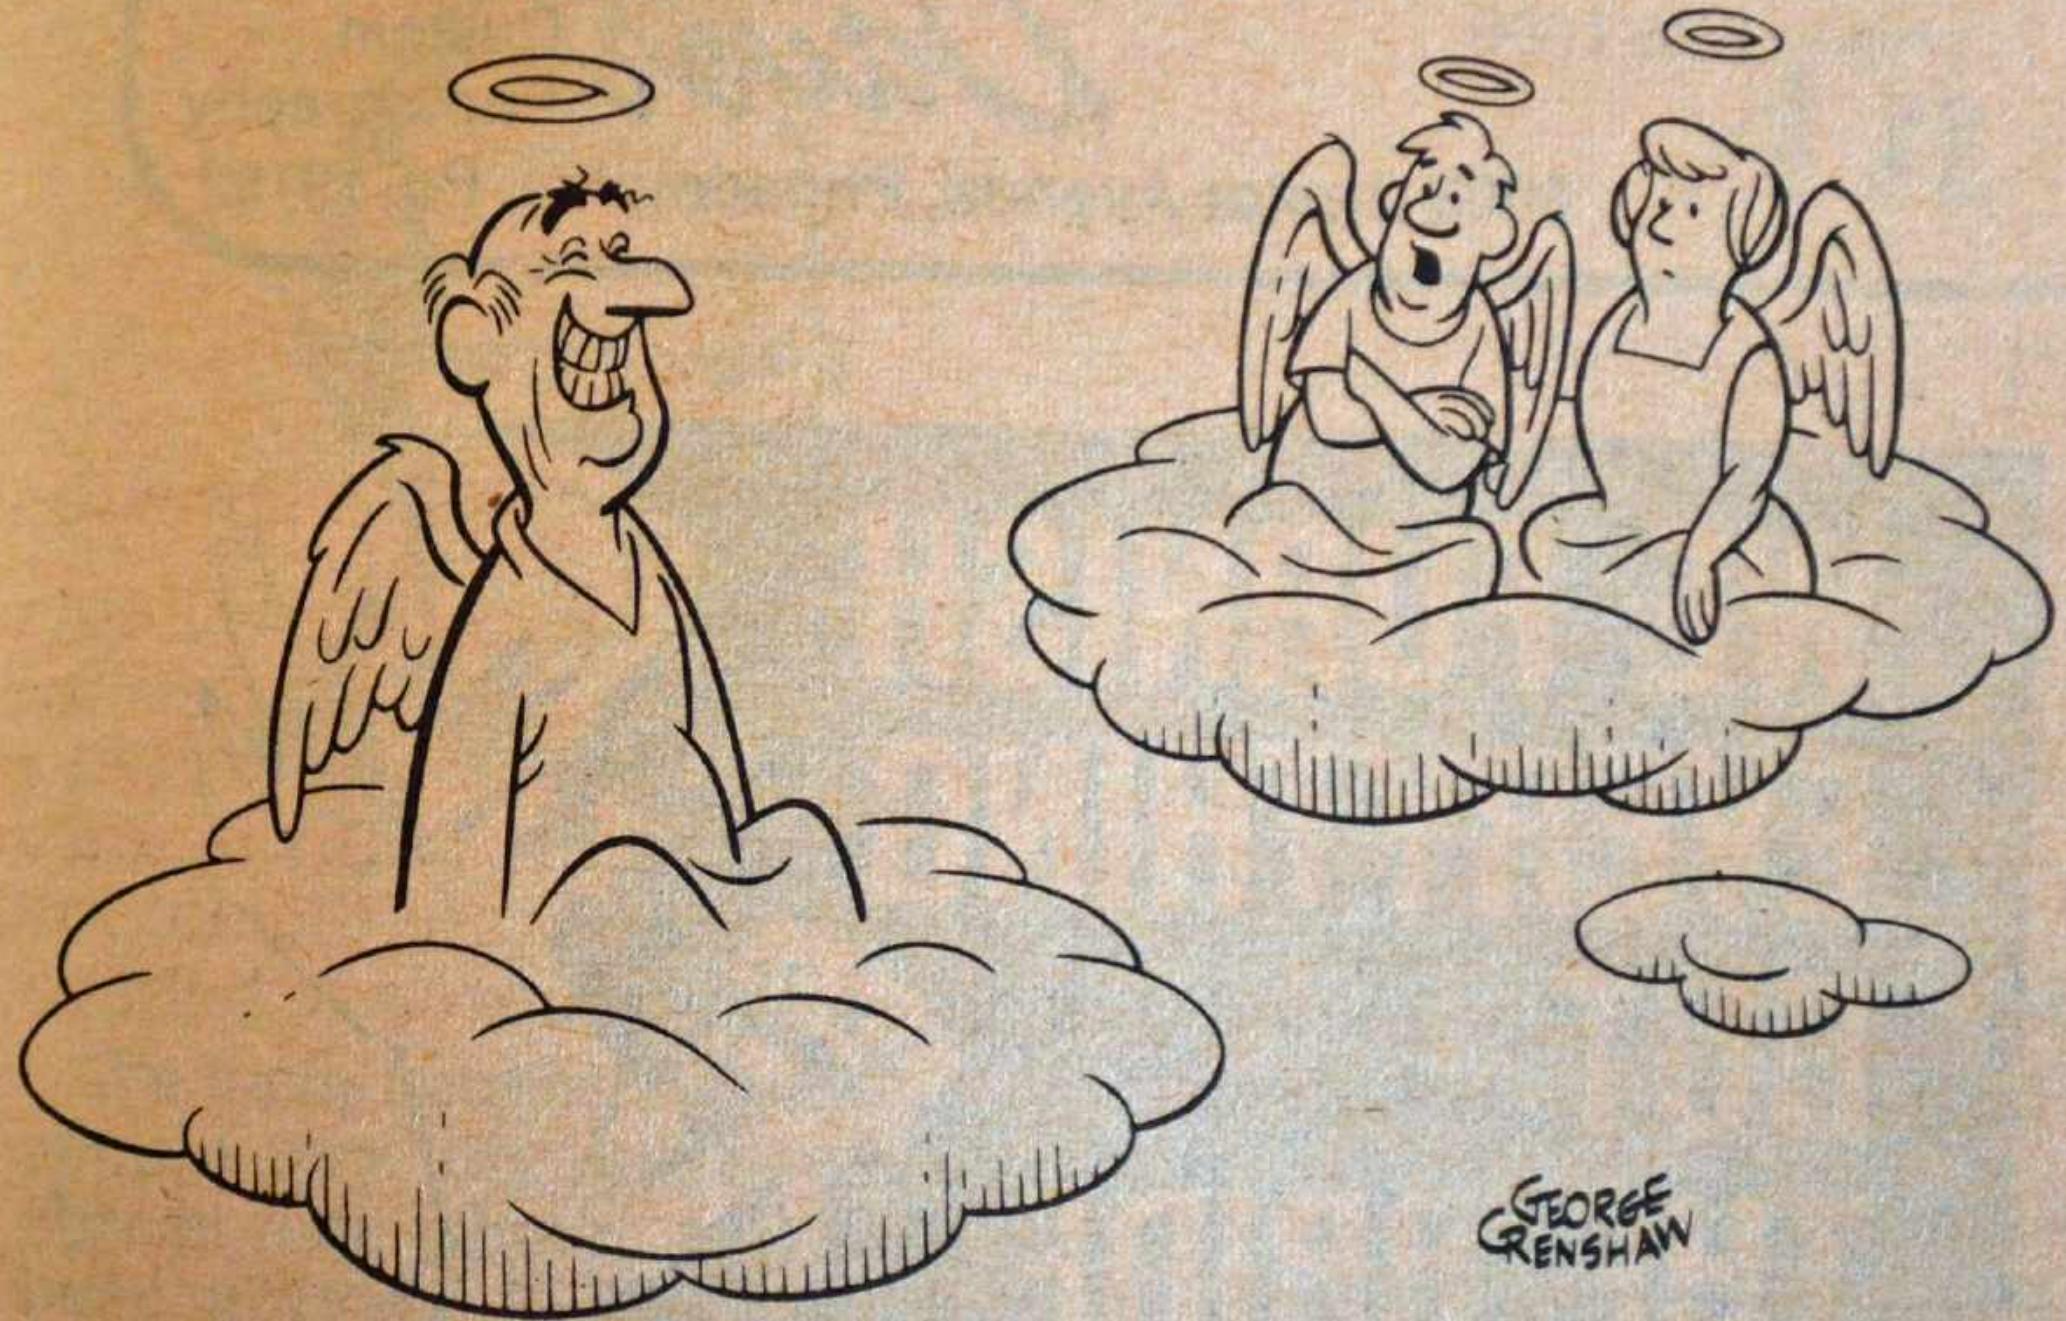

"I HAVE FRIENDS IN HIGH PLACES."

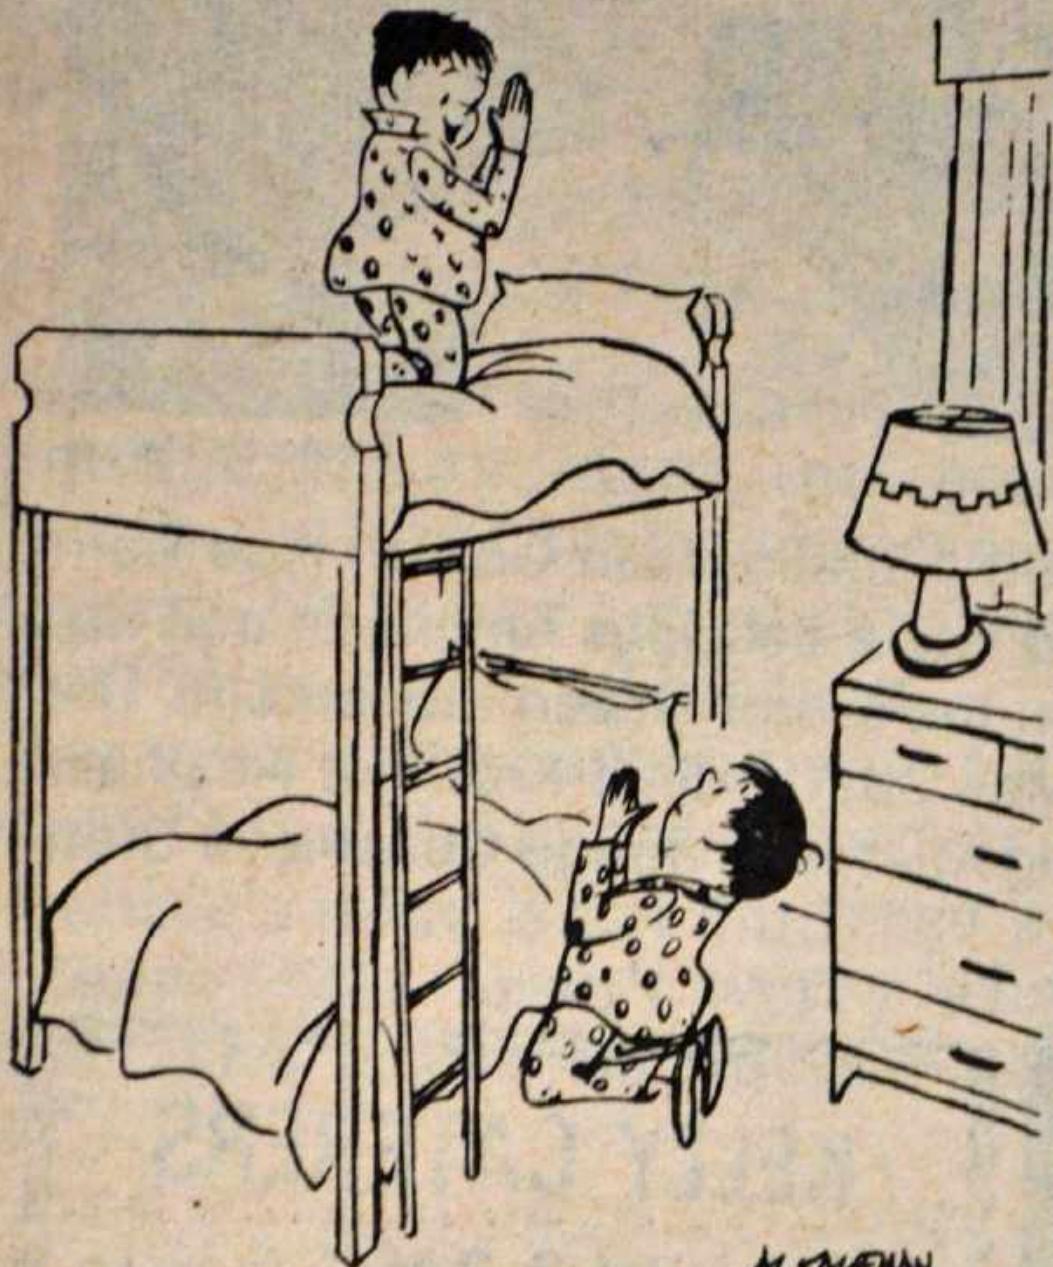

"I've been thinking about the interior design, George. What would you say to bucket pews?"

" HE OWED A LOT OF BACK TAXES."

Anything special you want? Mine's going to get there first."

"I DON'T LIKE THE WAY OUR VACATION IS STARTING OUT!"

GEO. GREENSHAW

"DEAR LORD. SAME THING AS LAST NIGHT. AMEN."

"At a time like this, Brother, you could forget your vow of silence!"

'SEE? I'M NOT THE ONLY ONE WHO CAUGHT YOU SKIPPING THE COLLECTION PLATE, MR. HINKLY!'